Sir,

With reference to your official Memo (Petition Branch) No. 614 dated 15th November last, forwarding a petition from the Ryots of the Devaraddihalli village in the Challakere Taluk, for the extension of their village site, I have the honor to state that the Amildar of Challakere Taluk reports that the present site is overcrowded and that the ryots pray for the addition of Survey No. 45 to the same. The further States that the land now applied for being close to the existing Site the request of the Ryots may be complied with -

2.- Under these circumstances, I beg to recommend the alienation of Survey No 45 specified in the Statement herewith submitted. The vernacular records received from the Amildar of Challakere with his Report No 817/813 dated 27th Ultimo are also submitted for reference -
